

Daria's Tips for Starting Conversations

Hi, I'm Daria!

Sometimes I feel a little nervous to start conversations with other kids — especially at school or when I don't know them very well. If that happens to you too, you're not alone.

Here are my tips to help you feel more confident when talking to someone new!

Step 1: Observe

What is the other person doing, wearing or holding?

- ☞ Are they making a paper airplane?
- ☞ Does their shirt have a minecraft logo?

Step 2: Think

Step 3: Greet

Start with a friendly "Hi!" or "Hey!"

Step 4: Be Friendly

Try a question, compliment, or comment.

That airplane looks awesome! How did you make it fly so far?

Step 5: Notice Their Reaction

Pay attention to how they respond:

- ☞ Are they smiling?
- ☞ Are they looking away?

Step 6: Keep Going or Move On

If they seem interested, keep chatting!

If not, you can say:

- ☞ "Thanks for talking with me!"
- ☞ "See you later!"
